

COGOJETS Privacy Policy

Your privacy is very important to us.

If you visit our Website (the "Site") and/or access the services offered by us, we have procedures in place to protect your privacy. Our system will be able to ascertain your geographic location from your IP address, but we do not track the sites that you access while you use our services unless (i) we are required to do so by law; (ii) we have reason to believe that you have violated the terms and conditions of the Terms of Use Agreement which may be viewed here [PROVIDE LINK]; (iii) you have caused or attempted to cause harm to us or the other users of our Site; and/or (iv) you voluntarily provide us with personal information (as described below).

Two types of information may be collected when you visit our Site:

Personal and Company information, (such as name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, social security number, credit card numbers, or credit information) which is only collected by us if you voluntarily submit it to us or to one of our third party providers. For example, if you voluntarily register with us on our "Sign Up" Site page or with one of our third party providers, we will receive the registration information that you submit so that we can better ensure that you are receiving the information or services that you requested (your "Billing Information" will not be stored on our Site or by us. Instead, it will be stored and protected by our trusted third party payment processor); and Aggregate information, automatically collected non-identifying statistics, (such as information about how many visitors log on to the Site). Our servers will collect third-party sites, and information from these sites, from your use of the Site. When you visit our Site, your computer may be assigned one or more cookies which may collect information to facilitate access to our Site and to enhance your online experience. In addition, we may use standard Internet tools, such as web beacons, to track your use of our Site so that we may customize our services and advertisements. To clarify, CoGoJets uses this information to measure the use of our Site, to improve the content of our Site, and to provide our users with the best possible services.

In sum, you can visit our Site without telling us who you are or revealing personal information about yourself. However, you can, if you choose, participate in additional secured applications. For access to these applications, you are required to complete a registration form with us. This form includes information such as name, address, phone number and e-mail address, as well as company related information. We use this information to enhance and provide our services, to better meet the needs and preferences of our customers, and to enhance the security of our Site. We may also from time to time, send information to registered users about system changes or new products that we think may be of interest.

CoGoJets does not rent, sell, or share personal information about you with other people or non-affiliated companies except to provide services that you have requested, when we have your permission, or under the following circumstances:

We respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process, or to establish or exercise our legal rights or defend against legal claims.

We believe it is necessary to share information in order to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the physical safety of any person, violations of our Terms of Use Agreement, or as otherwise required by law.

We may transfer information about you if CoGoJets is acquired by or merged with another company. In this event, CoGoJets will notify you before information about you is transferred and becomes subject to a different privacy policy.

The inclusion of any link does not imply our endorsement of the external site company, its Website or Websites, or the products and services it promotes or sells. When you leave our Site to visit one of these linked sites, the only information transferred to the third party is the fact that you came from our Site (the "refer address").

CoGoJets is not responsible or liable for the independent privacy policies of these third-party Websites. You should consult the privacy policies at these Websites to determine how your information may be used.
